Helping Hands

Holiday Spirit is all about doing for others, or in this case, fur babies. Mrs. Patterson's Human Growth and Parenting class asked "what can we do for Christmas"?

"We want to use the sewing machines." So they rummaged through the storage closet and found many scraps of blanket fleece and pillow forms.

Bingo! Let's put together some blankets and pillows for the animal shelter. After three class days of intense piecing, pinning and sewing, they created two pillows and seven blankets for all sizes.

The class delivered the items to the Barton County Humane Society in Great Bend on Dec. 18th. The staff was very happy to receive them. It was a warm and fuzzy day.:) Have a Meowy Christmas and Barking

ISO: Christmas Decs

The Junior class is looking to borrow white flocked or silver Christmas trees and deer yard ornaments for prom. Also, any Christmas decor that matches silver, white, or light teal. Mrs. McAlister will personally tag and bag your deer, trees, or ornaments so that they are returned to you after the dance.
